Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary
Permanent Representative of Bosnia and Herzegovina to the Council of Europe

Strasbourg, 8 June 2021

Subject: Nomination of candidates for GREVIO membership

Dear Ambassador,

Following the withdrawal of Turkey from the Istanbul Convention and the subsequent resignation of the Turkish member of GREVIO, one of the 15 seats of GREVIO has become vacant, and the Committee of the Parties will have to proceed with an election at its 11th meeting on 7 December 2021.

In accordance with Rule 9 of the Committee of Ministers Resolution CM/Res\(2018\)13 on rules on the election procedure of the members of the Group of Experts on Action against Violence against Women and Domestic Violence \(GREVIO\), I would like to invite your Government to submit to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe the names of three candidates of not more than three candidates, who meet the requirements set out in rules 2 to 5, at the latest by 6 October 2021, using the model set out in the appendix to the Rules and in one of the official languages of the Organisation (English or French).

Please note that according to Rule 14 of the above-mentioned Resolution, a member elected to fill a seat which has become vacant before the end of the term of office shall serve for the remainder of the predecessor's term, which in this case would end on 31 May 2023.

Taking into account the current composition of GREVIO and that no two members may be nationals of the same state (Rule 8), the following state parties have the right to nominate candidates for GREVIO membership:

Andorra	Denmark	Poland
Austria	Estonia	Romania
Belgium	Finland	San Marino
Bosnia and Herzegovina	Iceland	Slovenia
Croatia	Ireland	Spain
Cyprus	Monaco	North Macedonia
	Montenegro

With reference to the aforementioned Rules (which reflect the wording of the Istanbul Convention itself) I would like to recall in particular the following provisions which should be taken into account when selecting candidates:

COUNCIL OF EUROPE
F-87075 Strasbourg Cedex

www.coe.int

- Rule 2:

The members of GREVIO shall be chosen from among persons of high moral character, known for their recognised competence in the fields of human rights, gender equality, violence against women and domestic violence, assistance to and protection of victims, or having demonstrated professional experience in the areas covered by the (...) Convention.

- Rule 3

The members of GREVIO shall sit in their individual capacity and shall be independent and impartial in the exercise of their functions. (...)

Persons holding decision-making positions as regards defining and/or implementing policies in the field of combating violence against women and domestic violence in government or in any other organisation or entity, which may give rise to a conflict of interest with the responsibilities inherent to membership of GREVIO, shall not be eligible.

- Rule 4

The members of GREVIO shall be available to carry out their duties in an effective manner, by devoting sufficient time and capacity to participate in the meetings and work of GREVIO, and be able to work for the preparation of the reports and recommendations of GREVIO. They shall have good command of at least one of the official languages of the Council of Europe (English or French). Knowledge of the other language is desirable.

- Rule 11

The term of office of a member of GREVIO shall be four years, renewable once. The date of expiry shall be specified in the exact date on which the term of

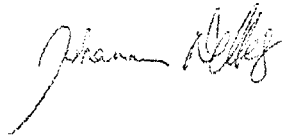

Allow me to mention that in nominating candidates, state parties should endeavour to nominate women as far as possible within the limit of three with a view to providing expertise in the following areas: Professional qualifications relevant to GREVIO's work and to achieving gender balance; Professional expertise in the field of law enforcement, as well as in the medical field, and in dealing with victims of violence against women and domestic violence; and any other area relevant to GREVIO's work.

I would also like to mention that in line with the above and also pursuant to Rule 10, each state party should ensure that the procedure leading to the nomination of candidates for GREVIO is transparent and competitive. In this context, I would be grateful if the letter to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe and their curricula vitae describe the procedure by which candidates were selected.

Please note that additional nominations for candidates will be requested in October this year in view of the regular ending of the term of office of five members of GREVIO in August 2022.

Please do not hesitate to contact me (conventionviolence@coe.int) if you require any further information. It would be appreciated if you could also send the submission of candidatures to this mailbox: conventionviolence@coe.int.

Yours sincerely,

Johanna Nelles
Executive Secretary of the monitoring mechanism of the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence

Resolution CM/Res(2014)43

on rules on the election procedure of the members of the Group of Experts on Action against Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (GREVIO)

(Adopted by the Committee of Ministers on 19 November 2014 at the 1212th meeting of the Ministers' Deputies)

The Committee of Ministers, in accordance with Article 66, paragraph 5 of the Council of Europe Convention on Preventing and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (CETS No. 210), after consulting with and obtaining the unanimous consent of the Parties to the Convention, adopted the following rules:

General

Rule 1

The Committee of the Parties shall elect the members of the Group of Experts on Action against Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (hereinafter referred to as "GREVIO"), in accordance with the following rules.

Qualifications and eligibility of the members

Rule 2

The members of GREVIO shall be chosen from among persons of high moral character, known for their recognised competence in the fields of human rights, gender equality, violence against women and domestic violence, assistance to and protection of victims, or having demonstrated professional experience in the areas covered by the Council of Europe Convention on Preventing and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (CETS No. 210, hereinafter referred to as the "Convention").

Rule 3

The members of GREVIO shall sit in their individual capacity and be independent and impartial in the exercise of their functions.

They shall take no part in any government, organisation or person on how to perform their duties as members of GREVIO.

The independence and impartiality of GREVIO members shall not be put into question by the mere fact that they are civil servants, or are employed in the public sector. However, individuals holding decision-making positions in the drafting and/or implementing policies in the field of combating violence against women and domestic violence in government or in any other organisation or entity, which may give rise to a conflict of interests or responsibilities inherent to membership of GREVIO, shall not be eligible.

Rule 4

The members of GREVIO shall be available to carry out their duties in an effective manner. They shall have sufficient time and resources to participate in the meetings and other activities of GREVIO, and be able to work for the purposes of GREVIO in the member States of GREVIO. They shall have good command of at least one of the official languages of the Council of Europe (English or French). Passive knowledge of the other language is required.

Rule 5

The members of GREVIO shall be nationals of the States Parties to the Convention.

Composition of GREVIO

Rule 6

GREVIO shall be composed of 10 members for as long as there are 24 States Parties to the Convention, taking into account gender and geographical balance, as well as multidisciplinary expertise. Following the 25th ratification, GREVIO shall be composed of 15 members.

Rule 7

The membership of GREVIO should represent the main legal systems as well as different cultures and agencies in the field of violence against women and domestic violence.

Rule 8

No two members of GREVIO may be nationals of the same State.

Nomination of candidates

Rule 9

States Parties to the Convention have the right to nominate candidates for GREVIO membership. The government of each State Party may submit to the Secretary General of the Convention the names and the curricula vitae, using the model set out in the appendix and in one of the languages of the Organisation, of not more than three candidates who meet the requirements set out in Rules 2 to 5 to serve on GREVIO. States Parties shall endeavour to nominate as many candidates as possible within this limit with a view to providing experts with different professional qualifications relevant to the work and to achieving gender balance.

The Secretary General shall transmit these documents to the Committee of the Parties.

If the Committee of the Parties considers that one or more of the candidates nominated by a State Party do not meet the requirements for membership of GREVIO as set out in Rules 2 to 5, the Committee of the Parties may request the State Party concerned to withdraw the candidate(s) in question.

Where appropriate, the Committee of the Parties will examine the implementation of the present Rule in light of the experience of the initial elections and propose any adjustments which may be necessary.

Rule 10

Each State Party shall ensure that the national selection procedure leading to the nomination of candidates for GREVIO is transparent and open to competition in order to lead to the nomination of the most qualified candidates.

Election of the members

Rule 11

The members of GREVIO shall be elected by the Committee of the Parties from among candidates whose names and curricula vitae have been received by the Secretary General at the latest two months before the election.

Rule 12

In filling vacant seats in GREVIO, the Committee of the Parties shall give priority to electing, in the following order, experts:

- a. who possess competences and/or professional experience not sufficiently represented amongst the members of GREVIO;
- b. from geographical areas not represented in GREVIO;
- c. representing a main legal system not represented in GREVIO; and
- d. of the sex under-represented in GREVIO.

Rule 13

The Committee of the Parties shall elect members of GREVIO by secret ballot.

Each member of the Committee of the Parties shall have as many votes per election round as there are seats to be filled. Only one member of the Committee of the Parties can only vote for one national of each State.

In order to ensure compliance with the composition of GREVIO in line with Rule 12, up to a maximum of three seats can be filled in any given round, and the Committee of the Parties shall proceed with a vote to elect the candidate(s) who has/have received the most votes, and at least a majority of the votes cast.

Should two or more candidates receive the same number of votes, resulting in more than the maximum number of seats in any given round, the Committee of the Parties shall proceed with a vote to elect the candidate(s) as (a) stipulated by GREVIO.

Should the provisions of this rule result in the election of two candidates or more who are nationals of the same State, only the candidate with the highest number of votes shall be elected as a member of the Committee of the Parties.

Term of office

Rule 14

The term of office of the members of GREVIO shall be four years, renewable once. The Committee of the Parties shall elect the members of GREVIO at the end of the term of office begins.

The term of office of the members of GREVIO shall end on an earlier date if the Committee of the Parties finds, by a two-thirds majority of this Committee, that the members no longer meet the requirements for membership as set out in Rules 3 to 5, or if they do not request to be Secretary General to the Committee of the Parties.

A member of the Committee of the Parties who has become vacant before the end of the term of office of the previous member shall be replaced by the member of the previous term.

Rule 15

Should more than one member of GREVIO have elected for a second term of office in the same elections, the Committee of the Parties shall elect the members of GREVIO for a second term of office for a period of two years. These members shall be elected by the Committee of the Parties.

Common European Framework of Reference for Languages

⁹ Please provide a self-assessment of your level in languages other than your mother tongue using the following Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Listening skill:

- A1 I can recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my immediate concrete surroundings when people speak clearly and slowly.
- A2 I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary needed for everyday communication (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local enquiries, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear speech, if the message and the speaker are familiar.
- B1 I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio and TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is clear and standard.
- B2 I can understand extended speech and I can follow even a complex argument if provided the topic is reasonably familiar. I can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes. I can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.
- C1 I can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly articulated. I can understand relationships which are only implied and not signalled explicitly. I can understand television programmes with some effort.
- C2 I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, provided it is delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the subject.

Reading skill:

- A1 I can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences on forms, notices and posters or in catalogues.
- A2 I can read very short, simple texts. I can find specific, predictable information in everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus and timetables and I can understand short, simple personal letters.
- B1 I can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday language. I can understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.
- B2 I can read articles and reports concerned with contemporary problems in which the author adopts particular attitudes or viewpoints. I can understand contemporary literary prose.
- C1 I can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating some aspects of style. I can understand specialised articles and longer technical instructions, even when they relate to my field.
- C2 I can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including linguistically or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works.

Spoken interaction skill:

- A1 I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to help me, e.g. by speaking at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask for and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.
- A2 I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.
- B1 I can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).
- B2 I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. I can take an active part in discussion in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining my views.

C1 I can express myself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. I can use language flexibly and effectively for social and professional purposes. I can formulate ideas and opinions with precision and relate my contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.

C2 I can take part effortlessly in any conversation or discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely. If I do have a problem, I can backtrack and restructure around the difficulty so smoothly that other people are hardly aware of it.

Spoken production skill:

A1 I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.

A2 I can use a series of phrases and sentences to describe in simple terms my family and other people, living conditions, my educational background and my present or most recent job.

B1 I can connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, my dreams, hopes and ambitions. I can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. I can narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe my reactions.

B2 I can present clear, detailed descriptions on a wide range of subjects related to my field of interest. I can explain a viewpoint on a topic and give the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

C1 I can present clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects integrating sub-themes, developing particular points and concluding with an appropriate conclusion.

C2 I can present a clear, smoothly flowing description or argument in a style appropriate to the context and with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points.

Writing skill:

A1 I can write a short simple text, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example providing my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.

A2 I can write short, simple texts and messages relating to matters in areas of immediate needs. I can write a very simple personal letter, for example thanking someone for something.

B1 I can write simple texts on a range of topics which are familiar or of personal interest. I can write personal letters describing my feelings and impressions.

B2 I can write clear, detailed texts on a wide range of subjects related to my interests. I can write an essay or report giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view. I can write letters highlighting the main points of events and experiences.

C1 I can express my views in a well-structured text, expressing points of view at some length. I can write about a complex subject in an essay or report, underlining what I consider to be the salient issues. I can write a letter in an appropriate style.

C2 I can present clear, smoothly flowing text in an appropriate style. I can write complex letters, reports or essays with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points. I can write reports and reviews of professional or literary works.
